Project: Handyman for Multiple Small Projects

"He was very personal and helpful. The only thing that would be great would be that if he couldn't show up at the appointed time, to call to let me know that"

Additional comments provided by Time To Fix It Can't always be exactly on time, and I was late calling to say I would be so. My apologies.

"Peter is very Professional and on top of everything. He is a very trustworthy person. He was able to handle any job and if not he would recommend an outside company that you could count on. I am very happy to have met and build a great relationship with Peter Donnesburg. Thank you very much and I will always refer he to anyone he needs a reliable and licensed handyman. "
